

Cadence Academy

Music Composition

Group Classes
Private Lessons

Come practice your songwriting and composing skills beginning June 23 through July 27, 2018 with Dr. Lisa Crawford, California Music Educators Association Creating and Composing Representative.

For both K-12 students and music educators! You will be able to choose from collaboration with digital apps in group classes or private lessons, piano and keyboards, acoustic rhythm instruments, a variety of genres such as jazz and blues, and develop your composing plans for the coming year.

K-2 Children! Group music classes that focus children on creating their own music in a variety of projects! Meets once or twice weekly in a very comfortable San Pedro studio. Parents may stay or return after the completion of each one-hour meeting.

Grades 3—12 Students! Cadence Academy will support your exploration of notation and music production software through a variety of musical genres using our curriculum, Music Tech Café. You may also wish to get involved with our new Los Angeles Young Composers Ensemble beginning in September 2018 or the new vocal ensemble, San Pedro Music Project!

Teachers! Experience integrating composition into your approach to teaching music with K-12 students using technology and acoustic instruments. Bring your teacher friends for a group experience or come for private lessons! This summer, Cadence Academy is open to any grade level music educator, K-16.
